OPINION.

The Chief Judge.-

I am not sure whether our opinion is wanted as to the necessity for the appointment, or as to the propriety of appointing the particular officer designated in the District Magistrate's letter. Perhaps both.

If the District Magistrate has to be constantly at a distance from Head Quarters it is desirable that there should be an officer whose presence there is more frequent, to ensure regular disposal of appeals and miscellaneous cases, but whether this could be secured by empowering a Sub-division officer to hear appeals I am not in a position to be sure. It seems probable that the extra work entailed on the Deputy Commissioner by th unpropitious season will be considerable, but the District Magistrate gives no statement of his reason for his recommendation, beyond the necessity for touring frequently.— I do not think we can do more than than say we have no objection to the proposal if the Government have reason to believe that it is desirable to relieve the Deputy Commissioner of part of his work. As to the officer nominated I can give no personal opinion. Such of his work as I remember was about average I should say.

Mr. Justice K.S.Chandrasekhara Aiyar.-

I agree. As a special Food Comptroller has been appointed for the whole State (Mr.Matthan himself), it is just possible that the District Magistrate may not have as much work as anticipated; but of course Government is the proper judge of the matter.

Mr. Justice R.B.Plumer.-

I agree. From what I have seen of Mr. Ananda Rao Sirsi's work as Magistrate and from what I have always heard about him I think he can safely be entrusted with the powers of a District Magistrate, but in that case he should be in such revenue charge as will give him Head Quarters at Mysore.

I don't think this will be found necessary considering all the circumstances. Let us wait & see how events shape. If they develop as we expect, it will be time enough then to act.
